

Double-Master's-degree program

Graduate Institute of European Studies (GIES), Taiwan &
EMBA Business School, Quimper, France

EMBA
Business School

Collaboration Model

Students of Wenzao's Graduate Institute of European Studies (GIES) who successfully complete the requirements of both programs (Wenzao Ursuline University (WZU), Taiwan, and EMBA Quimper, France) will be awarded one Master's degree from WENZAO and one EMBA Master's degree.

GIES students may be admitted to the following EMBA MA program:

Wenzao Master's Program	Bridge Courses Provided by EMBA Business School	Entry at the EMBA Business School
Successful Completion of First Year at Graduate Institute of European Studies*	two-week Intensive Business Courses	MBA Europe-Asia International Business (EMBA Year 5)

*Students are required to obtain 18 credits (9 required + 9 elective) at GIES as minimum in first year.

All students from GIES must attend a pre-session of two weeks courses specified "International trade & Business program" at EMBA prior to commencement (two weeks before beginning of September of their program).

1 Admission and Selection of Students

Eligible students & requirements

- Regular MA Students of Wenzao European Studies program (GIES)
- Successful completion of first year at GIES (with minimum of 18 credits)
- Language requirements: TOEIC/750

Students should be pre-selected by home institute (GIES), and apply through the online application platform of EMBA. The final admission selection will be done by EMBA.

2 Conditions for degree award

Upon successful completion of credit requirements of Wenzao GIES and the Master's program at EMBA, Wenzao's students will be awarded both, the Master degree of European Studies from GIES and the Master degree of correspondent program by EMBA.

Students who complete only part of the program at EMBA may be eligible for waiving some credit points at Wenzao (credits achieved at EMBA can be transferred to their WZU graduate degree). Upon successful completion of GIES's graduate courses, Wenzao will issue a home-institution Master's degree.

GIES students will write their Master's thesis under shared advising between GIES and EMBA. Once students have successfully completed coursework and MA thesis, they will obtain a Master's degree from EMBA.

3 Program Duration

The double-degree program is based on a "1+1" schedule. The first year will be at GIES (WZU), the second year at EMBA.

4 Tuition, Fees & Enrollment

Students need to continue to be enrolled in their original institution and pay full tuition to their original institutions. If additional courses are required (pre-session in English courses or International Trade), students need to pay fees regarding these courses upon registration.

Students also need to bear the costs of the following expenses:

- Travel,
- Accommodation and meals
- Health insurance coverage,
- Accident insurance coverage,
- Visa, passport, and any other necessary document.
